

ELA MALAWI TEAM

Andrew Banda

He is ELA's 28-year-old teacher, a Malawian by birth, born in the village Chifira. He conducts ELA's daily morning workshops for 50 children with special needs and runs ELA's afternoon educational workshops for around 200 children every day. He completed pre-school education and received a certificate for a primary school teacher and got a degree in community service. He is an extremely hard-working, always smiling, kind young man (also father to 1-year old Unah) who is extremely popular among our children.

Peter Manda

He is ELA's 25-year-old Malawian teacher, born in the Mazembe village. He conducts ELA's daily morning workshops for 50 children with special needs and runs ELA's afternoon educational workshops for around 200 children every day. He completed pre-school education and received a certificate for a primary school teacher. ELA's children love his calm demeanor and kindness with which he approaches to every child.

Maggie Manda

She is ELA's cook and assistant to ELA's teachers, a Malawian by birth, born in the Kande village. She is 56 years old, mother of daughter Lennie and grandmother too. She cooks lunch for 50 ELA's children with special needs every day. She is an assistant to our teachers for kindergarten children in the afternoon workshops. She has been part of ELA since the very beginning in 2011. She is an extremely hard-working, conscientious, cheerful and a very kind lady.

E. Kamanga

He is ELA's night watchman, a Malawian by birth, born in the Mazembe village. He is 40 years old, father of 2 girls Rachel and Ezinas who regularly come to ELA's workshops.

He is ELA's night watchman for the past 4 years and does a great job.
